

THE VECINO GROUP
Housing for the greater good.

Rob Holzman

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLANNING & ACQUISITIONS

ABOUT

Rob is the Vice President of Planning & Acquisitions for the Vecino Group. Rob has served as a project manager on numerous high-profile developments for the state of New York. He has significant experience in multiple community and economic development projects. Rob also fills a major role at the Vecino Group with his knowledge and expertise in city planning & site due diligence.

EXPERIENCE

2019–PRESENT

Vice President of Planning & Acquisitions

THE VECINO GROUP

Primarily responsible for evaluating redevelopment possibilities and assisting Lead Developers, Project Manager and Design Team with municipal processes, approvals and permitting.

2010–2019

Senior Project Manager

ELAN PLANNING & DESIGN

As Sr. Project Manager, responsible for the leading the development of multiple community and economic development projects, primarily located in New York State. Projects included Comprehensive Plans, Neighborhood Strategies, Community Strategic Plans, Brownfield Opportunity Area plans, and EPA Brownfields Area-Wide Plans.

SKILLS

- > Public Outreach
- > Site Due Diligence
- > Housing & neighborhood planning
- > Project Management
- > Strategic Planning
- > Community Development

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Economics Minor in Business Administration

UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY

Master of Urban & Regional Planning

UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY